a little more about my travel vibe:

budget-luxe travel

aviation + plane nerd

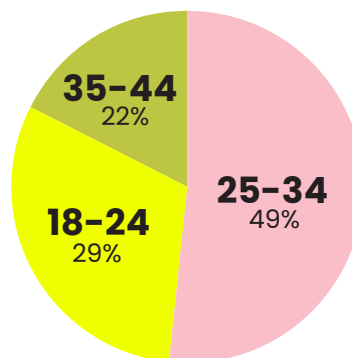

girl's girl energy

child-free lifestyle

Hi there, I'm Nina,

(short for Kristina, but only my passport calls me that).
I've been to 36 countries and counting - and yes, I always have a flight or three on deck. I'm the friend who's obsessed with plane trackers, who can refer you to an indepth pre-travel check off list, and has mastered the art of sleeping upright in economy for 8+ hours. Travel is my love language, and creating content that inspires others to explore the world is what sets my heart on fire :)

WHY WORK WITH ME?

I combine the eye of a creative director, the storytelling chops of a videographer, and the insight of a seasoned social media manager + a traveler who's probably already going to be there capturing the moment anyway... so why not make it a paid gig?! :)

- Strong, consistent engagement with a highly travel-curious audience
- Engaging video-first storytelling
- Seasoned traveler, collaborative partner, contagiously authentic & detail-obsessed editor
